

Child Dedication Invitations

Show the families and friends of your church family that you genuinely care about their friends and family when you invite them to your church to celebrate the children that they know and love.

- Provide invitations for church members to give family and friends.
- Reserve special seating for the family.
- If there is room, call the family and friends to join you on the platform when the child being dedicated, if they so desire.
- Invite family members to take pictures.
- Teach the congregation to welcome anyone new so the visiting family feels comfortable and accepted.
- Prayer over the child and the entire group of family and friends. Make the event special and memorable by giving the child a certificate and a Bible.
- If posting photos or video online, invite family to tag people they know, connecting them with the church presence online.
- Thank the family and friends for coming, and let them know they are welcome to return or contact the church with any questions or prayer requests.
